

GIBNEY'S

OF LONDON

GROUP BOOKINGS & EVENTS

FROM DUBLIN TO THE EAST END

Located in the north coast seaside town of Malahide, 9 miles from Dublin, you will find the original Gibney's pub, owned and run by the Gibney family since 1937.

Nestled beneath Daffodil Mulligan in Old Street, 3 legends of hospitality have come together to bring the same charm, atmosphere and hospitality of Gibney's Malahide to London.

With over a century of hospitality experience between them, Tony Gibney (after which the bar is named), Richard Corrigan (Corrigan's Mayfair, Bentley's Oyster Bar & Grill, Virginia Park Lodge) and John Nugent (Kings Place Events, Sea Containers) share an ethos of traditional Irish hospitality, where customers become friends. Mixing the spirit of an Irish pub, the dining experience of a top restaurant and the welcome you'd expect from your local but in five-star surroundings, Gibney's is a local melting pot for all whether it's dining, watching live music and sports, or throwing a party to remember.

Our menus, crafted by renowned chef Richard Corrigan, highlight wood-fired cooking techniques and top-quality ingredients. Classic party favourites like sausage rolls and steak sandwiches are elevated with sustainably sourced meats and delicious, thoughtful accompaniments.

DRINK

We take pride in the unforgettable parties we host and our impressive bar selection, featuring an extensive cocktail and wine list, along with eight draft beers.

Our bar offers everything you'd expect from a true Irish pub: a wide range of Irish spirits and liqueurs, a standout collection of Irish whiskeys and of course, a perfectly poured pint of Guinness.

No matter your preference, our drinks specialists are here to help, whether it's helping you find the perfect wine, mixing up a signature cocktail or serving a crisp Irish gin and tonic. Just ask for a recommendation.
